

How He Talked Back to Him.

Arkansas Traveler.

"Dot vos a mean man which went shoost now der door oud," said Mose Fuhrman to a friend who had dropped into his store.

"Why so?" inquired the friend.
 "He inshult me mit my own store."
 "Well, what did he say?"
 "He say dot bile uf bants ud make good miluck sdrainers mid a geese factory."
 "Why didn't you talk back to him?"
 "Vy didn't I? Bed your poots I did."
 "What did you say?"
 "Vat did I say? I doid him to come to hell."

Remarkable Relics.

From Nature.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. Keane exhibited at the Anthropological Institute, on behalf of the finder, Mr. M. S. Valentine, of Richmond, Virginia, some very remarkable stone objects recently discovered by that archaeologist in the neighborhood of Mount Pisgah, North Carolina. In the course of his remarks Mr. Keane explained that these were merely a few typical specimens selected from an extensive collection of over two thousand articles, partly in stone and partly in micaceous clay found in this upland region, between the Alleghany and Blue Mountains, during the years 1879-82. The material of the stone objects is almost exclusively steatite or soap-stone, which abounds in the district, and which might almost seem to have been sculptured with metal instruments, so perfect is the workmanship. The objects themselves are absolutely of a unique type, consisting partly of human and animal figures, either in the round or in various degrees of relief, partly of household utensils, such as cups, mugs, basins, dishes, and the like, partly of purely fancy and other miscellaneous articles, illustrating the tastes, usages and culture of the unknown people by whom they have been executed. Collectively they present, Mr. Keane maintains, a unique school of art developed at some remote period in a region where the presence of civilized men had not hitherto been even suspected. The human type, which presents great uniformity, while still by no means conventional, is distinctly non-Indian, according to Mr. Keane, but whether Mongolic or Caucasian it would at present be premature to decide. All are represented as fully clothed, not in the hairy blanket of the Red Man, but in a close-fitting well-made dress somewhat after the modern "united garment" fashion. Some are seated in arm chairs exactly resembling those known as Ingestre Chairs while others are mounted on the animals, which they had domesticated. These animals, themselves are stated to be marvelously executed. Some of them represent the bear, the prairie dog, and other quadrupeds, as well as birds of North America. But others seem to represent types of the Old World, such as the two humped Baktrian camel, the rhinoceros, hippopotamus, and European dog. There are also some specimens obviously executed since the appearance of the white man, as shown by the horse with his rider, firearms, shoes, &c. The material of all these has a much fresher look than the others, and is of much ruder workmanship, as if they were the work of the present race of Indians. These races are undoubtedly of the pure Indian type, Mr. Keane stated, and recognized themselves as intruders in this region, where they had certainly been preceded by more civilized peoples, such as the mound builders, and others whom they had traditions and who they had extirpated long before the arrival of the Europeans. Amongst these extinct people were the Alleghs or Alleghewis, whose name survives in the "Alleghany Mountains." These Alleghewis are said to have been a different race from the Indian, and it is possible, Mr. Keane thought, that in their new homes in the Alleghany uplands they may have continued or developed the culture of which we have met remarkable evidence in these stone objects. It is evident, however, that before any conclusions can be built on this interesting find, the conditions under which it was found must be carefully sifted by archaeological specialists.

"Mother," said little Ned, one morning, after having fallen out of bed, "I think I know why I fell out of bed last night. It was because I slept too near where I got in." Musing a little while, as if in doubt whether he had given the right explanation, added: "No, that wasn't the reason; it was because I slept too near where I fell out."

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain it its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

From Rev. P. N. GRANGER.

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.
 ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan., 20, 1880.
 DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours,
 P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell.

STROUGHTON, MASS., March 16, 1880.
 B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed two bone spavins with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one, don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off and two for the small one. I have used ten bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great.
 Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.
 KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach a every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.
 Send address for illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for best as well as man.
 Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO. Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. [27d.]

BATCHELDER'S

Ventilated Egg Case.

Patented February 15, 1881.

Indispensible to Merchants Shippers And Producers.

The outside frame of this carrier contains five trays, held in place by fasteners at end of case, as seen in cut. These Trays are constructed in reversible halves. The above cut shows one whole tray filled ready to be placed in case, each egg resting in its cardboard socket in such a manner as to be readily counted, candled, or transferred from tray to tray, or case to case without rehandling.
 For cold storage this case will store 60 dozen with racks made to receive the half trays, hence this is the cheapest storage case manufactured, saving largely in space.
 The manner of holding the eggs on end prevents oscillation, adding, or breakage, and adds greatly to their freshness when carried long in storage. Size of 30 dozen No. 1 cases 25x12x14, weighs 20 pounds.

PRICES IN CHICAGO.

Shipper's No. 1, 30 doz. Case with Fillers complete.....65 Cents.
 Farmer's No. 1, 18 doz. Case with Fillers complete.....55 Cents.
 Cardboard Fillers for refilling 20 Cents.
 15 per cent. discount on lots of 100 cases.
 Batchelder's Egg Tester, testing 6 doz. at once, saves to buyers many times its cost each season. Price $2.00.

By special arrangements made by the manufacturers of this case most Railroads will receive them as fourth class freight.
 The 18 dozen case made especially for Farmers' use, sent to any address by express, with out nailing, with full directions for setting up, on receipt of 50 cents. Every Farmer and consumer should have one of these cases, it will save its cost every month. Agents wanted in every county. Address,

J. H. BATCHELDER,
 (In ordering mention this paper.)
